Designfaget gennemgår

en transformation i disse år

r. Før gik designeres arbejde hovedsagligt ud på

at formgive objekter og have endte specifikke designopgaver. Nu er designere ikke kun formgivere, men også projektledere, og de skal kunne indgå

i alle dele af en designproces fra første ide

til endeligt resultat. Designfaget er blevet mere interdisciplinært, og nutidens designere konfronterer anderledes krav end deres forgængere. Design What ?#%! dokumenterer og præsenterer den historiske udvikling, som har fundet sted indenfor designfaget fra de tidlige forsøg

at dokumentere designprocedurer ved Bauhaus-skolen i 1920'erne til nyere trends og forskning i designprocesser. Design What?#! er den første faglitterære tegneserie, der ndes om dette emne. Lektorer ved Danmarks Designskole, Ida Engholm og Nanna Norup, vil ba de fortælle og vise læseren, hvad der rører sig i designfeltet. De formidler designhistorie i overensstemmelse med tidens tværdisciplinære tendenser.
